The Cherry Blossom Fete.

From babes in swaddling clothes to hoary-bearded gentlemen, provision will be made to feed or entertain the crowd attendant on the Cherry Blossom Fete. Apropos of this, our great Shakespearean week, it may be said that sweets will be served to the sweet; pansies for thought will be there in buttonhole bouquets, and good digestion will be sure to wait on appetite.

When that acute and brilliant individual (by name Marc Antony) tried to persuade the mob before him that the evil that men do lives after them, while the good is often interred with their bones, he knew quite well the reverse to be true; he knew, also, that he had caught the minds of wavering humanity; that for the moment they were his and would agree with him.

Now, suppose we should allow ourselves to agree with him. How could we be happy, thinking that all the good wishes and hard-earned results of our Cherry Blossom work might be buried with our bones? Avant, black thought! Rather, will all this live after us. And to this end we work, and trusting that our evil tendencies will be forgotten, we unite in one grand hana hana; while scissors cut and needles fly and egg beaters revolve and ovens make and ice cream freezers turn out bricks and candy molds open and disclose delicious animals and fruits.

When Mrs. John E. Baird undertook the task of chairmanship for the executive committee, she did not fully realize the wonderful generosity with which her request for donations was to be met. The merchants are to be congratulated. To say that the executive chairman is busy would be putting it mildly. She is indefatigable. Accomplishment is her aim—accomplishment spelled with a capital A; and while all the other little letters that stand for divisions of work take mediocre positions, such as b for bouquets and c for cakes and d for dances, this one big letter A is predominant. And when the alphabet has been exhausted and the closing night of the fete is nigh, our mental visions will disclose to us, when our heads are on our pillows, an electric sign that will be short and brilliant; a hyphenated A-Z, the A for the beginning, the hyphen meaning all the work that went between, and the Z indicating zenith—the highest point attainable in work.

To believe this is to be an optimist; nine-tenths of Honolulu believe it. The remaining few who shrug their shoulders—well, those few on the closing night will read that sign and be forced to join in the chorus of "Quod erat demonstrandum." And so the Japanese home for women will be built.

Surprise Party.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph V. Fernandez of Kapolei and Kinau streets were guests of honor at a delightful surprise party last Sunday evening in observance of the twentieth anniversary of their marriage. The party was arranged by the Misses Palmyra and Helena Reis and Carrie and Adelaide Fernandez. The evening was spent with games and music, followed by refreshments. Among those present were Consul-General and Mrs. Agnello Passoa, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Hollinshead, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Perry, Mr. and Mrs. L. P. C. Correa, Mr. and Mrs. A. I. Silva, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Rodrigues, Mrs. and Mrs. G. P. Alfonso, Mr. and Mrs. Julia P. Rego, Mr. and Mrs. David B. Silva, Mr. and Mrs. J. Almeida, Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Castro, Mr. and Mrs. M. Santos, Mr. and Mrs. M. Franca, Mrs. Ables, the Misses Palmyra and Helena Reis, Carrie and Adelaide Fernandez, Miss T. B. Phillips, Miss Clara Perry, the Misses Gabriella and Mary Correa, Miss T. Camacho, Miss Beasie Medeiros, Miss Adeline Silva, the Misses Rosemary and Adeline Rodrigues, Miss Laura Affonso, Miss Mary Fernandez, and Messrs. G. Boyd, B. Farrell, Thomas Soper, Jules Carvalho, Jr., W. F. Affonso, George Pereira, Gus Gomes, William W. Marshall and Benjamin Marshall.

OUR YOUNG WOMEN

are so often subject to headache—are languid, pale and nervous—because their blood is thin or insufficient. They are not really sick and hesitate to complain, but they lack that ambition and vivacity which is their birthright. They do not need drugs—but do need the tonic and nourishment in Scott's Emulsion that makes richer blood, fills hollow cheeks, suppresses nervousness and establishes strength. Nourishment alone makes blood and Scott's Emulsion is the essence of concentrated nourishment, free from wines, alcohols or opiates.

If mother or daughter is frail, pale or nervous, give her Scott's for one month and see the betterment. It has a wholesome, "nutty" flavor. Avoid substitutes. At any drug store.

Everything in Readiness For Delicatessen Sale.

The ladies in charge of the delicatessen sale of the Catholic Ladies' Aid Society will start their sale promptly at 10 o'clock Saturday morning. Many delicacies will be on sale. Last week the table that Mrs. Charles Clark is to preside over (the "mummu") was inadvertently omitted from the list of tables. Mrs. Clark has a very splendid array of mummu and judging by former sales they will all be sold. The sale will be held in the Harrison block, Fort and Beretania street. A light luncheon will be served upstairs, and a quiet club will enliven the luncheon hour.

Miss Margaret Gorman Entertains.

Sunday afternoon, Miss Margaret Gorman and Mr. Harry Gorman entertained at an Easter party. The table was decorated in pale pink sweet peas, the favors were Easter chicks and rabbits. Games were played and prizes awarded. The guests were Miss Mary Vernon, Miss Lucy Campbell, Miss Helen Vernon, Miss Dorothy Coombs, Miss Rose Murray Rodrigues, Mrs. Adeline Rodrigues, Mr. Herbert Aubach, Miss Geraldine Aubach, Miss Lorita Beall and Miss Doris Beall.

The Navy Relief Ball.

Mrs. C. J. Boush, wife of Admiral Boush, is working very earnestly to make a financial as well as an artistic success of the navy relief ball, which will be held on the night of May 12 at the armory. It will be a notable society event. The committees are not entirely arranged, but will be completed at the end of the week.

Society Amateurs Will Shine Tonight.

"The Taming of the Shrew" is the Shakespearean play selected by the Footlights to commemorate the memory of the great bard. The house is practically sold out and a good presentation of the comedy is assured.

Everyone in Honolulu who has had the pleasure of meeting Col. and Mrs. F. P. Reynolds will hear with regret that shortly they will leave Hawaii. Col. and Mrs. Reynolds, with their two young sons, have been deservedly popular both "fitting in" as though they belonged here. It is a very sincere hope that some day they will come again. They will be here until the August transport, unless other orders change their plans.

Mr. and Mrs. F. A. Schaefer have invitations out for a company of friends for Tuesday, May 2, to listen to Prof. Joaquin Wanrell, the singer and teacher, who has come to Honolulu and hopes to make his home here.

Mrs. Conger Pratt, wife of Lieut. Pratt, U. S. A., is with Mrs. George Bell, wife of Maj.-gen. Bell, at San Antonio, Tex. Gen. Bell and his aid, Lieut. Pratt, are at El Paso, Tex. — San Francisco Chronicle.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Young were made very happy on Saturday morning last and are receiving the good wishes of a large circle of friends over the arrival of a baby.

Mr. Ogden Mills returned a few days ago to his home in New York, after a brief visit with his sister, Mrs. Whitelaw Reid, at her home in Millbrae. — San Francisco Argonaut.

Mrs. Herman Focke was a homecoming passenger on the Matsonia after a very pleasant month with Mrs. E. R. Stackable in San Francisco.

James D. Dole, a nephew of Former Governor Dole of Hawaii, is staying at the Clift. — San Francisco Chronicle.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Balch and Mrs. Ritter are at Kahala for a week, occupying the John Guild home.

Yesterday afternoon Mrs. A. A. Young was hostess for the Auxiliary of St. Andrew's Guild.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Cook of Honolulu are guests at the Clift. — San Francisco Chronicle.
